

President Wilson and Bride Give Dinner at White House In Honor Of the Speaker and Mrs. Clark

News of Society at the Capital.

The President and Mrs. Wilson entertained at the last of the series of state dinners at the White House last evening when the Speaker of the House and Mrs. Champ Clark were the guests of honor. The table decorations consisted of jonquills and farfars, and after the dinner Mr. Ignace Jan Paderewski played several selections, including Beethoven's Sonata C sharp minor, adagio sostenuto, allegretto, presto agitato; "Le Carillon de Cythere"; "Le Coucou"; and a group by Chopin, including Ballade, nocturne, mazurka, etude, and polonaise.

The guests of the President and Mrs. Wilson were: The Speaker and Mrs. Clark, Senator James H. Smith, Senator and Mrs. Fletcher, Senator Gallinger, Senator and Mrs. Hitchcock, Senator Hollis, Senator James H. Jones, Representative and Mrs. Nelson, Senator and Mrs. Owen, Senator Simmons, Senator and Mrs. Swanson, Senator and Mrs. Tillman, Representative and Mrs. Alexander, Representative and Mrs. Butler, Representative and Mrs. Dent, Representative William S. Greene, Representative Hay, Representative and Mrs. Kahn, Representative and Mrs. Kent, Representative and Mrs. Padgett, Representative and Mrs. Rainey, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Barnett, Hon. and Mrs. Charles C. McChord, Hon. and Mrs. Winthrop M. Dague, Hon. and Mrs. Ignace Jan Paderewski, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Galt, Mrs. Richard H. Townsend, Mrs. W. U. Vreeland, Mrs. William H. Bolling, Miss Mary Curtis Lee, Miss Anna D. Bolling, Miss Gordon, Miss Agnes Wilson, Miss Burleson, Miss Gregory, Miss Delano, Miss MacMurray, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Bones, Dr. A. M. Fauntleroy, Lieut. Commander Robert L. Berry, Dr. C. T. Grayson, Mr. Bennett C. Clark, Lieut. John A. Baird, Lieut. Paul H. Bastedo, Lieut. Charles E. Battle, Lieut. James H. Cross, Lieut. James A. Dorat, Lieut. Alexander L. James.

In honor of the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall and the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing, the Congressional Club entertained at a reception last evening which was one of the most charming functions given by the club this season. The room was beautifully decorated with palms, Southern smilax, and pink snapdragons, with silken American flags festooned above the doorway. Mr. Maxine Band played and there was dancing later in the evening. An elaborate buffet supper was served from an oval table adorned with huge centerpieces of pink snapdragons and ferns, which surrounded a tiny stage from which rose a miniature cherry tree fashioned from wax and bearing the real fruit. Mrs. Alice Pomeroy presented the club members to the guests of honor. Mrs. Marshall wore a charming gown of cerise tulle over cloth of gold, embroidered in gold and trimmed with gold lace. Mrs. Lansing was very handsome in a cloth gown. Both ladies carried quaint little old-fashioned bouquets of violets and gardenias in lace bouquets, the gifts of the club. Mrs. Pomeroy was crowned in white tulle and crystals and carried Kilkenny roses and lilies of the valley.

The ladies who assisted were Mrs. J. W. Byrns, Mrs. Albert Cummings, Mrs. G. W. Fairchild, Mrs. R. N. Paine, Mrs. E. Taylor, Mrs. H. G. Copley, Mrs. James Russell, Mrs. J. F. Byrnes, Mrs. James Reed, Mrs. H. S. Reeside, Mrs. John F. Shafroth, Mrs. Thomas Walsh, Mrs. William C. Redfield, Mrs. Edward Keating, Mrs. C. C. Copley, Mrs. James Brown, Scott, Mrs. J. J. Rogers, Mrs. Percy Quinn, Mrs. John W. Abernethy, Mrs. Lenore Sherwood, Mrs. Michael F. Phelan, Mrs. S. O'Hanrahan, Mrs. E. S. Candler, Mrs. Willard Ragdale, Mrs. Charles H. Dillon, Mrs. Seth Shepard, Mrs. William R. Smith, Mrs. John H. Stephens, Mrs. John A. Sterling, Mrs. W. H. Thompson, Mrs. John Q. Tilton, Mrs. Frederick C. Stevens, Mrs. Dorsey Shackelford, Mrs. C. B. Timberlake, Mrs. Charles H. Townsend, Mrs. John D. Warka, Mrs. S. Tribble, Mrs. Saml. Trimble, Mrs. James E. Martin, Miss Ellen P. Wood and Mrs. J. Harry Covington.

Mrs. Joseph Daniels will not receive today.

Mrs. Joseph Briggs Weaver, of Newport News, Va., is the guest of honor at Dorothy Gamble's apartment in the Parkwood.

Representative Cannon and Miss Helen Cannon entertained at a dinner of twenty covers last evening in honor of the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels.

The Attorney General and Mrs. Gregory were hosts at dinner last evening when their guests included Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lasker, Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. Thompson.

Mrs. Joseph Daniels will not receive today.

Mrs. Joseph Briggs Weaver, of Newport News, Va., is the guest of honor at Dorothy Gamble's apartment in the Parkwood.

Representative Cannon and Miss Helen Cannon entertained at a dinner of twenty covers last evening in honor of the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels.

The Attorney General and Mrs. Gregory were hosts at dinner last evening when their guests included Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lasker, Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. Thompson.

Mrs. Joseph Daniels will not receive today.

Mrs. Joseph Briggs Weaver, of Newport News, Va., is the guest of honor at Dorothy Gamble's apartment in the Parkwood.

Representative Cannon and Miss Helen Cannon entertained at a dinner of twenty covers last evening in honor of the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels.

The Attorney General and Mrs. Gregory were hosts at dinner last evening when their guests included Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lasker, Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. Thompson.

Mrs. Joseph Daniels will not receive today.

Mrs. Joseph Briggs Weaver, of Newport News, Va., is the guest of honor at Dorothy Gamble's apartment in the Parkwood.

son, Mrs. F. D. Potter; from Christ Church, Washington parish, Miss R. Isabel Simonds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dodge, and Miss F. C. Walker, of Boston, have arrived in Washington for an indefinite stay and are at the Shoreham Hotel.

Mrs. Redfield will be at home this afternoon for the last time this season.

Mrs. E. F. Berthoff and Miss Dorothy Berthoff received from 4 to 7 yesterday afternoon. They were assisted by Mrs. Inness, Mrs. Allen Lard, Mrs. McAllister and Mrs. Joseph Stoddard.

Mrs. Kauffmann and Miss Kauffmann will be at home this afternoon at Airline, Military road.

Mrs. Edward J. McQuade and her daughter, Mrs. George H. Fort, will be at home this afternoon.

Mrs. William S. Hogg will be at home this afternoon, when she will be assisted by Mrs. Charles S. Porter, Mrs. Theodore G. Dewey, Mrs. Dudley Knox and Mrs. Edmund L. Butts.

The social committee of the Woman's Evening Club will entertain this afternoon from 5 to 6 at 720 Thirteenth street.

Misses Alice and Emma Yeatman, Mrs. S. E. Lynn and Miss Sadie Yeatman, Lynn have moved from their home on Twelfth street to 435 Seventh street, Petworth, and will be glad to see their friends after April 1.

The Col. John Donelson Chapter, D. A. R., has postponed its at-home from February 24 to March 2, at the Burlington, from 8 to 11 o'clock.

Mrs. D. Frank Mebane, who was the guest of Judge and Mrs. Charles Howry, returned to her home in North Carolina yesterday.

Mr. Louis L. Connelley, of New York, is in Washington for a few days, and is at the Shoreham.

One of the most interesting events of Hyattsville society this season was the dance given under the auspices of the Ravenswood Tennis Club in Mason's Hall Monday evening. About forty couples attended and the affair was an every respect a pronounced success.

The ball was a great success and was attended by many of the best people of Washington and Rockville.

The ball opened at 8:30 o'clock with a grand march, led by Mr. John Chrisman, of Washington, and Mrs. Roy Crowe, of Bethesda, whose partners were gorgeous.

Mrs. James Wilson, of Bethesda, was dressed as a queen. Mr. Howell Gross, of Washington, was dressed as Aunt Jenna, while the crowd of approximately 400 people in an uproar from the time he arrived until midnight, when the ball broke up.

Music was furnished by Mr. Crowe and his orchestra.

After the ball Mr. and Mrs. Robey gave a midnight supper to the guests, which was marked with much brilliancy.

The marriage of Mr. Norman F. Hines and Miss Minnie O. Baker, both of this city, took place in the First Presbyterian Church last Tuesday evening.

The students of Martha Washington Seminary celebrated Washington's Birthday with a dinner party last evening, which was served in the red room at the Willard.

Mrs. Joseph J. O'Donohue, Jr., and Miss Gladys O'Donohue and Miss Ethel O'Donohue, of New York, arrived here yesterday and are stopping at the Willard.

The guests, in addition to Miss Warner and Miss Lea, were Mrs. William Bailey Lamar, Miss Helen Blodgett, Miss Joan O'Neil, Mrs. Rose Gravenor, Mrs. Fred Britten and Mrs. Robert Ransdell.

The marriage of Mr. A. Washington Peet, attorney at the location of Peru, son of the Minister of Peru, and Mme. Peet, and Miss Helen M. Lehigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rich, of Rockville, Md., took place at the Willard, March 15, at the home of the bride.

Children in a most dangerous one, the seers declare, for the association of men and women, whether in business or social affairs. Deceit and treachery are fostered by the stars.

For a case in which sober judgment and wise decision are required this planetary government is most unfortunate. All matters of diplomacy should be deferred.

The configuration is not favorable for commerce or for ventures on the sea. A railway wreck followed by a fire again is foretold by the seers.

Children in a most dangerous one, the seers declare, for the association of men and women, whether in business or social affairs. Deceit and treachery are fostered by the stars.

Features for Today.

CRANDALL'S APOLLO—Mary Pickford in "A Girl of Yesterday."

CRANDALL'S—Blanche Sweet, Owen Moore, and Mae Marsh in "The House of Mirth."

GARDEN—"A Corner in Cotton."

STRAND—"The Wonderful Wager."

HIPODROME—"In the Night."

EMPIRE—"The Bar in 'The Serpentine'."

MID CITY—"Island of Regeneration."

VICTORIA—"Silm Princess."

COLONIAL—"The Sporting Duchess."

HOWARD—"The Battle Cry of Peace."

DUMBARTON—"The Rosary."

MEADERS AND REVER—"The Rights of Man."

AMERICAN—"The Raven."

COSMOS—"A Man's Making."

LYRIC—"Thou Art the Man."

OLYMPIUM—"The Misleading Lady."

ALAMO—"Lord Loveland Discovers America."

WELCOME—"Society Wolves."

NAVY—"The Secret Agent."

STAR—"Lessons in Love."

but in "Souls in Bondage" Dr. Goodman is said to have furnished her with a vital human story.

"The Escape" at Crandall's.

For today and tomorrow, at Crandall's, the great D. W. Griffith production of "The Escape," a story of the underworld, will be shown.

It pictures the escape of a woman from the depths of poverty and degradation to a higher and better life.

The cast is an all-star one, including such well-known players as Blanche Sweet, Mae Marsh, Robert Harron and Owen Moore.

The picture throughout shows the hall mark of the capable Griffith direction. For the remaining two days of the week Alice Brady will be seen in a character unlike any other that she has portrayed, in "The Woman in 47."

Today at Crandall's Apollo Mary Pickford will be seen in one of her greatest successes, "A Girl of Yesterday."

First she is seen as the prim and unsophisticated reincarnation of our grandmother, and later as the center of attraction in the modern world of society.

In one of these scenes she makes a flight in an aeroplane. The picture for tomorrow will be Anita Stewart and Earle Williams in "My Lady's Slipper."

Maude Gilbert in "A Fool's Revenge."

HIPODROME—Jane Gail and Matt Moore in "Plot and Counterplot."

ALAMO—"The Mother."

COLONIAL—"Crooky Scruggs."

STANTON—"The Cave Man."

FAVORITE—"Daughter of the City."

HOWARD—"The Battle Cry of Peace."

COSMOS—"The Crown Prince's Double."

ALAMO—"The Girl and the Game."

WELCOME—"The Gamble."

NAVY—"Society Wolves."

STAR—"The Stab."

OLYMPIUM—"Barricade in 'The Painted Soul'."

REVER—"What Will People Say?"

GARDEN—"A Corner in Cotton."

TRUXTON—"Marion Eden."

"In the Night" at Hippodrome.

In the two-reel Victor drama, "In the Night," produced by Harry C. Myers, the author, Helmar Bergman is said to have followed the ancient rules of Greek drama. He has in technical language nearly succeeded in "preserving the unities." That is, he has confined the action to one short, continuous space of time, and with the exception of a few scenes to one place.

Clever planning enables him to keep the action confined to one night, and yet the story is so well worked out that there is no suggestion of monotony.

Probably great credit for these good results is due to the expert direction of talented actor and producer, Harry C. Myers. "In the Night" will be shown at the Hippodrome today.

"Souls in Bondage."

The most powerfully appealing and morally uplifting story of the new year is said to be embodied in Daniel Carlon's "Souls in Bondage." In which the Lubin Manufacturing Company has secured the rights to the story, which is a story of a man who is forced to provide suitable material for the proper expression of Miss O'Neill's talents.

"The Escape" at Crandall's.

Today at Crandall's Apollo Mary Pickford will be seen in one of her greatest successes, "A Girl of Yesterday."

First she is seen as the prim and unsophisticated reincarnation of our grandmother, and later as the center of attraction in the modern world of society.

In one of these scenes she makes a flight in an aeroplane. The picture for tomorrow will be Anita Stewart and Earle Williams in "My Lady's Slipper."

Maude Gilbert in "A Fool's Revenge."

HIPODROME—Jane Gail and Matt Moore in "Plot and Counterplot."

ALAMO—"The Mother."

COLONIAL—"Crooky Scruggs."

STANTON—"The Cave Man."

FAVORITE—"Daughter of the City."

HOWARD—"The Battle Cry of Peace."

COSMOS—"The Crown Prince's Double."

ALAMO—"The Girl and the Game."

WELCOME—"The Gamble."

NAVY—"Society Wolves."

STAR—"The Stab."

OLYMPIUM—"Barricade in 'The Painted Soul'."

REVER—"What Will People Say?"

GARDEN—"A Corner in Cotton."

TRUXTON—"Marion Eden."

"In the Night" at Hippodrome.

In the two-reel Victor drama, "In the Night," produced by Harry C. Myers, the author, Helmar Bergman is said to have followed the ancient rules of Greek drama. He has in technical language nearly succeeded in "preserving the unities." That is, he has confined the action to one short, continuous space of time, and with the exception of a few scenes to one place.

Clever planning enables him to keep the action confined to one night, and yet the story is so well worked out that there is no suggestion of monotony.

Probably great credit for these good results is due to the expert direction of talented actor and producer, Harry C. Myers. "In the Night" will be shown at the Hippodrome today.

"Souls in Bondage."

The most powerfully appealing and morally uplifting story of the new year is said to be embodied in Daniel Carlon's "Souls in Bondage." In which the Lubin Manufacturing Company has secured the rights to the story, which is a story of a man who is forced to provide suitable material for the proper expression of Miss O'Neill's talents.

"The Escape" at Crandall's.

Today at Crandall's Apollo Mary Pickford will be seen in one of her greatest successes, "A Girl of Yesterday."

First she is seen as the prim and unsophisticated reincarnation of our grandmother, and later as the center of attraction in the modern world of society.

In one of these scenes she makes a flight in an aeroplane. The picture for tomorrow will be Anita Stewart and Earle Williams in "My Lady's Slipper."

Maude Gilbert in "A Fool's Revenge."

HIPODROME—Jane Gail and Matt Moore in "Plot and Counterplot."

ALAMO—"The Mother."

COLONIAL—"Crooky Scruggs."

STANTON—"The Cave Man."

FAVORITE—"Daughter of the City."

HOWARD—"The Battle Cry of Peace."

COSMOS—"The Crown Prince's Double."

ALAMO—"The Girl and the Game."

WELCOME—"The Gamble."

NAVY—"Society Wolves."

STAR—"The Stab."

OLYMPIUM—"Barricade in 'The Painted Soul'."

REVER—"What Will People Say?"

GARDEN—"A Corner in Cotton."

TRUXTON—"Marion Eden."

"In the Night" at Hippodrome.

In the two-reel Victor drama, "In the Night," produced by Harry C. Myers, the author, Helmar Bergman is said to have followed the ancient rules of Greek drama. He has in technical language nearly succeeded in "preserving the unities." That is, he has confined the action to one short, continuous space of time, and with the exception of a few scenes to one place.

Clever planning enables him to keep the action confined to one night, and yet the story is so well worked out that there is no suggestion of monotony.

Probably great credit for these good results is due to the expert direction of talented actor and producer, Harry C. Myers. "In the Night" will be shown at the Hippodrome today.

"Souls in Bondage."

The most powerfully appealing and morally uplifting story of the new year is said to be embodied in Daniel Carlon's "Souls in Bondage." In which the Lubin Manufacturing Company has secured the rights to the story, which is a story of a man who is forced to provide suitable material for the proper expression of Miss O'Neill's talents.

"The Escape" at Crandall's.

Today at Crandall's Apollo Mary Pickford will be seen in one of her greatest successes, "A Girl of Yesterday."

First she is seen as the prim and unsophisticated reincarnation of our grandmother, and later as the center of attraction in the modern world of society.

In one of these scenes she makes a flight in an aeroplane. The picture for tomorrow will be Anita Stewart and Earle Williams in "My Lady's Slipper."

Maude Gilbert in "A Fool's Revenge."

HIPODROME—Jane Gail and Matt Moore in "Plot and Counterplot."

ALAMO—"The Mother."

COLONIAL—"Crooky Scruggs."

STANTON—"The Cave Man."

FAVORITE—"Daughter of the City."

HOWARD—"The Battle Cry of Peace."

COSMOS—"The Crown Prince's Double."

ALAMO—"The Girl and the Game."

WELCOME—"The Gamble."

NAVY—"Society Wolves."

STAR—"The Stab."

OLYMPIUM—"Barricade in 'The Painted Soul'."

REVER—"What Will People Say?"

GARDEN—"A Corner in Cotton."

TRUXTON—"Marion Eden."

"In the Night" at Hippodrome.

In the two-reel Victor drama, "In the Night," produced by Harry C. Myers, the author, Helmar Bergman is said to have followed the ancient rules of Greek drama. He has in technical language nearly succeeded in "preserving the unities." That is, he has confined the action to one short, continuous space of time, and with the exception of a few scenes to one place.

Clever planning enables him to keep the action confined to one night, and yet the story is so well worked out that there is no suggestion of monotony.

Probably great credit for these good results is due to the expert direction of talented actor and producer, Harry C. Myers. "In the Night" will be shown at the Hippodrome today.

"Souls in Bondage."

The most powerfully appealing and morally uplifting story of the new year is said to be embodied in Daniel Carlon's "Souls in Bondage." In which the Lubin Manufacturing Company has secured the rights to the story, which is a story of a man who is forced to provide suitable material for the proper expression of Miss O'Neill's talents.

"The Escape" at Crandall's.

Today at Crandall's Apollo Mary Pickford will be seen in one of her greatest successes, "A Girl of Yesterday."

First she is seen as the prim and unsophisticated reincarnation of our grandmother, and later as the center of attraction in the modern world of society.

In one of these scenes she makes a flight in an aeroplane. The picture for tomorrow will be Anita Stewart and Earle Williams in "My Lady's Slipper."

Maude Gilbert in "A Fool's Revenge."

HIPODROME—Jane Gail and Matt Moore in "Plot and Counterplot."

ALAMO—"The Mother."

COLONIAL—"Crooky Scruggs."

STANTON—"The Cave Man."

FAVORITE—"Daughter of the City."

HOWARD—"The Battle Cry of Peace."

COSMOS—"The Crown Prince's Double."

ALAMO—"The Girl and the Game."

WELCOME—"The Gamble."

NAVY—"Society Wolves."

STAR—"The Stab."

OLYMPIUM—"Barricade in 'The Painted Soul'."

REVER—"What Will People Say?"

GARDEN—"A Corner in Cotton."

TRUXTON—"Marion Eden."

"In the Night" at Hippodrome.